Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Andrew Henderson, DOB: 5/18/83, Beloit, was sentenced yesterday in U.S. District Court in Madison by Chief U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb to 10 years in prison, to be followed by a three-year term of supervised release, for distributing heroin. Judge Crabb stated that Henderson deserved a lengthy prison term to reflect the seriousness of the offense.

Henderson and his co-defendants, Kory Lindsey and Shimika Lindsey, were indicted on May 10, 2006, along with 21 other individuals for their involvement in the distribution of narcotics in Rock County. Henderson pleaded guilty on July 20, 2006. Kory Lindsey is presently scheduled for trial on November 20, 2006. Shimika Lindsey's whereabouts are unknown.

The charges against Henderson were the result of an investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Janesville Police Department, the Beloit Police Department, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the State Line Area Narcotics Team (SLANT), the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigations - Narcotics Bureau. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul W. Connell.
